

MI-CAREME CELEBRATIONS SOCIETY'S DIVERSION

Carnival Spirit to Rule at Most of Entertainments
Arranged for Charity—Many Mid-Lent
Functions on Calendar.

MI-CAREME will be celebrated by society this week in the usual gay manner and the carnival spirit will prevail at most of the numerous entertainments arranged for charity. On Thursday evening at Sherry's the annual Mi-Careme Carnival for the benefit of the West Side Juvenile Club will be given under fashionable patronage. This affair has been a fixture of mid-Lent for years, and always proved one of the most interesting features of the penitential season. In former years attractive theatrical entertainments have been given by amateurs, but on Thursday the evening will be devoted entirely to dancing. The committee requests that every one attending come in fancy costume.

The girls' committee consists of Miss Helen G. Alexander, Miss Dorothy Anderson, Miss Anne B. Bradley, Miss Madeleine M. Carey, Miss Betty Carson, Miss Katherine G. Chapin, Miss Cornelia Van A. Chapin, Miss Winifred W. Chisolm, Miss Elizabeth Clarkson, Miss Catherine D. Colt, Miss Catherine V. R. Crosby, Miss Marion Carey Dinsmore, Miss Margaret E. Ehart, Miss Emily W. Dick, George Ernest Fahys, Jr., Fisher Goodhue, Amory L. Haskell, Alfred O. Hoyt, Shepard Krech, Van Santvoord Merle-Smith, William F. Philips, Howard A. Plummer, Geraldyn L. Redmond, Homer Eugene Sawyer, Jr., Edward Shippen and Theron R. Strong.

A folk-dance ball will be given by Miss Elizabeth Burchenal on Wednesday at the Hotel McAlpin for the benefit of the Aberdeen Fund, under distinguished patronage. Many of the guests will wear peasant dress of to-day, and the whole setting and atmosphere will be that of a genuine peasant fete day.

The ball will begin with a grand march in the form of the French peasant dance "Farandole," in which the dancers move single file, and hand-in-hand, in a long merry procession, headed by the band and illuminations.

The general dancing will include very simple folk dances which every one can do and old-fashioned waltzes. There will be modern dancing for those who prefer it. Two or three exhibition folk dances will be done during the evening. Conrad's orchestra will play the specially arranged music for the occasion.

The patrons include Lord and Lady Aberdeen, the Mayor and Mrs. Mitchell and Mrs. Egerton L. Winthrop, Jr.

The tickets are two dollars, and can be obtained from Robert Alfred Shaw, 182 Front Street.

The Aberdeen Fund has been organized to raise contributions to continue the beneficent work of the Women's National Health Association of Ireland. This organization since 1907 has been doing great service in the stamping out of tuberculosis, in purifying the milk supply and improving the housing conditions of the poor in Ireland, especially as these relate to the health of babies and children. Now the very existence of this association is threatened unless funds can be raised to carry it through this crisis caused by war conditions.

A Mi-Careme Ball for the benefit of the refugees of Montenegro will be given on Wednesday evening at the Hotel Plaza under the patronage of Queen Milena, of Montenegro, Mme. George Baldimetteff, the wife of the Russian Ambassador; Mme. M. Oustoinoff and Mme. A. V. Seferovitch. There will be native dancing in costume and native songs will be sung. Mlle. Vlasika Novotna, late of the Imperial Russian Ballet, will dance. Mrs. Egerton Parsons is honorary chairman and Miss Marjorie Urry Wainwright acting chairman.

Tickets, including supper, at $3.50, may be obtained from Miss Wainwright, 222 West Twenty-third Street; Montenegro Relief Association, 195 West Fortieth Street; Egerton Parsons, 51 Wall Street, or Hotel Plaza.

A Mi-Careme Festival will be held at the Hotel Biltmore to-morrow afternoon and evening for the benefit of the Polish, French and Belgian war sufferers. The entire nineteenth floor of the hotel will be used for the affair, which opens with a charity bazaar and carnival at 2 o'clock, to be followed at 10 o'clock in the evening by a ball and pageant of all nations. A queen will be chosen during the evening and after her coronation she will select a king. Court robes, including the queen's coronation gown, the king's cloak and endless beautiful garments for the pages, ladies-in-waiting and full court regalia have been specially designed for the occasion by Giddings and will afterward be on display in their windows. Lucille, Limited, is sending fifteen mannequins, who will be dressed in stunning costumes and who will sell programmes.

The programme will consist of musical and dramatic numbers by Estelle Wentworth, Katherine Emmet, Joseph Cawthorne, Shelley Hull and other artists.

Much interest is manifested in the bridge tournament to be held on Tuesday afternoon in the ballroom of the Ritz-Carlton Hotel under the auspices of the Bridge Committee of the New York Women's League for Animals. Atlantic City, March 25.—Easter visitors are arriving every day and making reservations for stays in the big hotels until after the fashion parade of Easter morning. Many of the women who have come here directly from Palm Beach and other Southern resorts are shopping along the boardwalk for new gowns and hats. Announcement has been made by officials of the Atlantic City Country Club that the annual spring tournament will take place on May 4, 5 and 6.

Snow are also there.

The Traymore was the centre of a number of social functions. Colonel and Mrs. James Elverson, of Philadelphia, entertained friends in the Submarine Grill and in the Lotus Room. Prince Jerome Bonaparte with the Princess came over from Washington and entertained informally in the Lotus Room. Two former governors of Uncle Sam's island possessions were there at the same time. They were George Robert Carter, ex-Governor of Hawaii, and Judge C. E. MacGoon, of Washington, formerly chief executive of Porto Rico. Judge Jacob M. Dickinson, receiver of the Rock Island Railroad, held a conference with clients, who came from various parts of the United States.

The grand opera and concert stage was represented by Mme. Johanna Galski and John McCormack.

Aiken, S. C., March 23.—Spring weather is much in evidence and dogwood and honeysuckle are beginning to bloom. Both of last week's horse shows were successes. All society attended and the weather was ideal. Special trains that came from Augusta and Columbia were crowded and the demand for horses and vehicles to attend the shows was so great that many members of society were compelled to drive to them behind the negroes' inseparable companion, the mule. Mr. John O'Day, who is making his home at the Highland Park Hotel, captured two prizes in the shape of cups and blue ribbons.

One of the social events at the Highland Park Hotel was the dinner given Sunday night by Colonel and Mrs. George Harvey, of New York. The guests were Rear Admiral Thomas Perry, U. S. N.; Rear Admiral Mead, U. S. N.; Mrs. Ladenburg, Mr. and Mrs. C. Temple Emmet, Mr. and Mrs. Charles W. McCutchen, Professor and Mrs. Frothingham, Miss James, Miss Edgerly, Mr. and Mrs. Irv-

Camden, S. C., March 23.—The eighth annual horse show, given by the Camden Polo Club, will be held this year on March 30-31 on the Camden baseball grounds. The annual tournament for the Southern Circuit Cup will be held at Camden this year. Camden's season is at its height. Cottages are all filled and hotel accommodations almost impossible to obtain. Among the prominent guests at the Hobkirk Inn are T. S. Howland and J. B. Bradbury, of the C. B. & Q. R. R. Others are Major E. N. Tollman, of Chicago, and Walter White, Detroit. Mme. Sembrich has taken one of the Kirkwood cottages, and the White cottage at the Kirkwood is occupied by S. T. Douglas, with Mrs. Douglas, Miss Douglas, D. Dwight Douglas, and Miss Remick, all of Detroit. Among other Kirkwood patrons are H. R. Tremaine, H. T. Proudfoot, L. V. Hubbard, Mrs. L. V. Hubbard, Mr. and Mrs. George S. Coe, John Williams, Miss Williams, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Chase, H. K. Bull, Mrs. D. Thomas Moore, W. G. Wylie, Mrs. Wylie, Robert W. Martin, Mrs. Martin, F. J. Humphrey and George Clarke, of New York.

Nassau, Bahamas, March 23.—Nassau was very much "up in the air" on Monday evening, the occasion being an "Evening With the Aviators," an exhibition of films and lantern slides showing the part played by heavier than air craft in the war. The affair was under the patronage of Sir William and Lady Allardice and was for the benefit of the British Red Cross and the Aero Club of America. Mrs. William Allen Bartlett, of the Executive Committee of the National Special Aid Society, was an ardent worker, and her stirring plea for national action was read by R. Barnes Shepherd, the chairman of the meeting, amid great enthusiasm.

An amusing feature of the evening was a limerick contest for a prize offered by Mrs. Bartlett. The winning limerick, written by Mr. and Mrs. McHarg Davenport, was read by the Honorable Walter Scott, Premier of Saskatchewan.

Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. F. N. Doubleday, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Plimpton, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Rutherford, H. M. Stillman and the Misses Stillman, Marshall Prentiss, Mrs. G. Shepherd, Miss Edith Whyte, the Misses Boardman, Mrs. John Greene and E. N. Fenno.

Palm Beach, Fla., March 26.—Cold weather in the North has been an unusual factor at this date in prolonging the season here. The height of the season is past, but at least a thousand people remain, and there is more life and class here now than any of the other American resorts frequented by strictly society people ever attain. The weather is superb. For two weeks there has scarcely been a cloud in the sky and the thermometer hangs at 73 degrees day and night. Vegetables are fully grown in the gardens and the foliage is that of mid-summer. W. Earl Dodge, of New York, is the latest convert here to aviation. He took his first flight only a week ago with the Honorable Frederick E. G. Eden and the next day commissioned him to buy one of the latest models of American made machines at a cost of $15,000. Eden is here with his mother, Lady Auckland, wife of Baron William Morton Eden, of England. Young Eden has recently become heir to the baronetcy through the death of his elder brother in the European war. Mr. Dodge gave a stag party for him aboard his private car soon after meeting him and arranged to go with him to Savannah, where he will take instructions in flying as soon as his car returns from New York, where he sent it the middle of this week with James Hyde and Edward H. McCullough, of New York, aboard.

The private car habit is a costly one, which, however, has flourished here this season as never before. There have literally been dozens of them on the siding at a time. For a man and his wife to come down from New York in a private car costs for transportation in excess of $1,600, in addition to which a flat rate of $50 a day must be paid for the car from the day it leaves to the day it returns, plus all extras, such as edibles, etc. In spite of this many people keep cars here for weeks at a time. They get a little use of them by giving teas and dinners aboard occasionally.

There is considerable rivalry just now between members of the Sailfish Club of Palm Beach, one of the most exclusive organizations of the sort in the country, who are in competition for the season's prizes given for records made ending April 1. John D. Crimmins is president, and has offered the handsomest award, a sailfish of sterling silver about two feet long, made for a wall decoration. This will be given for the longest sailfish taken, which so far is one just under eight feet in length, caught by Harlan Kent Bolton. The club's annual meeting occurred this week, when the following well known men were elected to membership: J. Lorimer Worden, George Edward Kent, Sylvanus S. Schoonmaker, Wadsworth R. Lewis, Heywood Cutting, Caleb W. Hammill, Colonel Willis S. Paine, Henry T. Sloane, Stephen H. Brown, all of New York; Edward T. Stotterbury, of Philadelphia; Irvine Keyser, of Baltimore; T. Morris Carnegie, Eugene W. Purgy, of Pittsburgh; William Thaw, 3d, of Lakewood; George A. McKimlock, of Chicago, and Edmund G. Buckner, of Wilmington, Del.
